

South African Cardinal to Speak at St. Leo Parish

Join in solidarity with the struggle of the African people. Cardinal Wilfrid Napier, OFM, of Durban, South Africa, will speak after the 11 a.m. Mass at St. Leo Parish in Detroit on Sunday, June 30. The cardinal is an advocate of HIV-AIDS treatment, poverty eradication, debt relief, and development. He is in his third term as president of the Southern African Catholic Bishops' Conference in 2000.

African-style music and lunch will follow Mass and Cardinal Napier will speak and answer questions from 2 – 3 p.m. RSVP by June 28 for the free luncheon and presentation by calling Carol Hofer of the Archdiocese of Detroit at 313-237-5843. St. Leo is located at 4860 15th St. at Grand River, one block south of Warren.
