

Cardinal Maida on Resignation of Boston's Cardinal Law

“I am deeply saddened by all that has happened. Yet, I believe Cardinal Law has taken a brave step to promote healing and bring serenity to the Boston archdiocese. He is a long-time friend, and I will miss his insight and leadership on national and international issues. Cardinal Law and the priests and people of the Church of Boston are in my prayers.”

— Cardinal Adam Maida
Archbishop of Detroit
Friday, 13th December 2002