

Members of the Archdiocesan Review Board

Judge Michael J. Talbot is chairperson of the Archdiocesan Review Board. He served as a trial judge for over 20 years before his appointment in 1998 to the Michigan Court of Appeals. Judge Talbot assisted in the writing of the first Victim's Rights Law for the State of Michigan and was responsible for implementing the law in courts and law enforcement agencies of Wayne County. He is known as a strong advocate for the right of victims. Judge Talbot is also a member of the Advisory Board for Catholic Education of the Archdiocese of Detroit and serves as chair of the School's Committee of the Board. In addition, he has served on parish councils in two parishes and on numerous other Catholic boards and committees. He received his Juris Doctorate from the University of Detroit School of Law in 1971. Judge Talbot is single and lives in Grosse Pointe Farms.

Robert W. Asmussen is Vice President, Strategic Planning, St. John Health. He has worked in the health care field for 37 years. Asmussen is a member of the School Committee of the Archdiocese of Detroit and a former member of the Archdiocese of Detroit Board of Education and the School Board of Gabriel Richard High School, Riverview. He and his wife, Patricia, reside on Grosse Ile and have five children and five grandchildren.

Nancy J. Diehl is Chief of the Projects and Training Division in the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office. She was appointed an Assistant Wayne County Prosecutor in 1981, was promoted to Deputy Chief in 1997, and promoted to Chief in 2001. In 1987, she was appointed Director of the Child Abuse Unit and, in 1994, Director of the new Child and Family Abuse Bureau. Diehl lectures extensively throughout the state and nationally on domestic violence and child abuse investigation, prosecution and related issues. She is the coauthor of four booklets pertaining to children and the legal system. Diehl is single and lives in Detroit.

Judge Louis E. Fairbrother is an attorney and retired district judge. He is a past president of the Oakland County Bar Association and the Oakland County District Judges Association. Judge Fairbrother holds a law degree from the University of Detroit. He and his wife, Barbara, are the parents of eight children and reside in Pontiac.

Father Ronald Jozwiak is a canon lawyer. He is an adjutant judicial vicar in the Metropolitan Tribunal of the Archdiocese of Detroit and also serves as pastor of St. Josaphat Parish, Detroit. Fr. Jozwiak was ordained to the priesthood in 1979. He is licensed professional counselor and a member of the Presbyteral Council of the Archdiocese of Detroit, an advisory group to Cardinal Adam Maida.

--More--

Patricia M. Moylan, Ph.D. is a Pediatric Neuropsychologist in the Department of Neurosurgery at Children's Hospital of Michigan. She is also an Associate Professor at Wayne State Medical School. Moylan resides in Northville. She is a single mother of two children. Max, age 13, and Hannah, age 7, both were born in Paraguay, South America, and adopted as infants.

Jeanne A. Riesterer is a retired school psychologist and is presently employed by Sacred Heart Church, Roseville, as Cemetery Manager. Prior to this, she served the Anchor Bay School District in New Baltimore as School Psychologist, Director of Reading of Programs, and Reading Specialist. In 1981, she was elected Mayor of Roseville, a city of 60,000, and served three consecutive four-year terms before retiring in 1993. Riesterer is widowed and has 11 children and 19 grandchildren. She is a resident of Sterling Heights.

Cardinal's Delegate to the Board:

Monsignor Walter Hurley is Cardinal Maida's Delegate to the Archdiocesan Review Board and has a special mandate to address any and all matters relating to the conduct of the clergy. Ordained in 1965, he is a canon lawyer and pastor of Our Lady of Sorrows Parish, Farmington. Msgr. Hurley is a former Judicial Vicar of the Metropolitan Tribunal of the Archdiocese of Detroit and a former Moderator of the Curia of the Archdiocese of Detroit. As Moderator of the Curia, he oversaw and coordinated the work of all the departments and offices of the archdiocese.

Staff to the Board:

Bishop Kevin Britt is an auxiliary bishop of the Archdiocese of Detroit.

Sister Barbara Celeskey, SJ, is Chancellor of the Archdiocese of Detroit.

Sister Beverly Hindson, IHM, is a chaplain at Children's Hospital of Michigan. She serves as the Victim Assistance Coordinator.

Ned McGrath is Director of Communications for the Archdiocese of Detroit.

Thomas Van Dusen is a partner in the law firm of Bodman, Longley and Dahling, the law firm retained by the archdiocese.

Catherine Wagner is Director of the Department of Parish Life of the Archdiocese of Detroit.