Archbishop Dolan to Speak at Sacred Heart Major Seminary Annual Dinner, June 12

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Detroit, Michigan. May 29, 2003—Sacred Heart Major Seminary will be holding its Sixth Annual Dinner on Thursday, June 12, 2003, at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel, Dearborn, Michigan.

The keynote speaker will be Most Reverend Timothy M. Dolan, archbishop of the Milwaukee archdiocese and the former rector of the Pontifical North American College in Rome. The theme for the evening will be “Educating from the Heart.”

During the event, a commemorative video will be shown in honor of Cardinal Adam Maida’s thirteenth anniversary as archbishop of Detroit. The cost for the dinner is $250 per person.

The Annual Dinner is a major fundraising event for Sacred Heart Major Seminary, 2701 Chicago Boulevard, Detroit, Michigan, 48206. For eighty years, Sacred Heart has been preparing priests for the Archdiocese of Detroit and dioceses across the country. It also educates candidates for the permanent diaconate, and women and men for lay ecclesial ministry.
