A Year of Grace

New CD by seminarian choir will inspire and help fund organ restoration

The 2009-10 Sacred Heart choir, with choir director Dr. Ronald Prowse. "I hope A Year of Grace will inspire the listener's faith and lift them up spiritually," says Dr. Prowse.

Your faith will be inspired—throughout the entire liturgical year—by this new CD featuring the Sacred Heart Major Seminary choir.

A Year of Grace: Music for the Liturgical Year is a collection of sixteen sacred works performed by the 2009-2010 choir and schola under the direction of Dr. Ronald Prowse, Sacred Heart's director of liturgical music. Five of the selections are original compositions by Sacred Heart seminarians or music directors former and current.

The selections range from the Renaissance through contemporary times and correspond to the liturgical seasons when school is in session: Advent/Christmas, Lent and Easter. A Year of Grace will take you on a delightful pilgrimage through the treasure house of Catholic liturgical music.

It's your choice. Play the selections during a particular liturgical season only, or play A Year of Grace right through and enjoy the music any time of year. Either way, your spirit will be elevated by the soaring performances—in the car, the home or anywhere you have a CD player handy.

Another benefit to your generous purchase: the revenue will help to fund a complete restoration of Sacred Heart's rare 1924 Casavant pipe organ. A Year of Grace is an excellent gift idea. Consider ordering extra copies for family and friends and participate even more in this worthy restoration project.
